Location: Merrimack Valley Christian Day School
1195 Varnum Ave, Lowell MA 01854

Cost: $20 per person

2-hour professional development training certificates will be provided

Do you need to bring more fun and hands-on activities to your story times? Do you struggle with keeping every child's attention through story time? Are you looking for ways to engage boys in reading? Would you like to know how to help diverse learners be an active part of your circle times? Then this workshop is for you!

In this 2-hour training, you will learn how to: Choose quality stories that keep children's attention and extend their learning. You will identify ways to engage and excite children in reading with hands-on literacy activities to do with stories. You will also learn how to make "Story Sacks" that will help families get involved in their child's learning.

EEC core competency areas: Understanding growth and development, Partnering with families, and Learning environments and implementing curriculum.
